

FOURTH GRADE SUMMER READING LIST

The Book to Read for Our Theme of Celebration and Reflection:

Every rising fourth grader must read the wonderful book, Get A Grip, Vivy Cohen by Sarah Kapit because we will be talking about celebrating our identity and culture.

You can purchase it here:

<https://www.amazon.com/Grip-Vivy-Cohen-Sarah-Kapit/dp/0525554181>

You are also welcome to check this book out from the local library. Please keep in mind students should have this book at school for the first 2-3 weekends of school.

Other Summer Reading Suggestions:

Fiction	Non-Fiction	Great Authors to Find
Holes by Louis Sachar Ruby Goldberg’s Bright Idea by Anna Humphrey The Bears in the Stars by Alexis Snell Percy Jackson by Rick Riordan Wonder by R.J. Palacio The Lemonade War by Jacqueline Davies	This Is How We Do It by Matt Lamothe A Sporting Chance By Lori Alexander The Thrifty Guide to the American Revolution by Jonathan W. Stokes Tree Lady by H. Joseph Hopkins Fractions in Disguise: A Math Adventure by Edward Einhorn	Barbara O’Connor Gordon Korman Seymour Simon Greg Tang Andrew Clements Katherine Applegate Matt Christopher

NOTICE:

We read several class novels in 4th grade and our units work better if students DO NOT read the books before, so that we are able to make inferences and predictions. So please do not read the books below:

Our Class Novels (subject to change):

- Insignificant Events in the Life of a Cactus by Dusti Bowling
- Bridge to Terabithia by Kate Paterson
- King George: What Was His Problem? By Steve Sheinkin
- Number the Stars by Lois Lowry

Hebrew Reading:

Each child has worked hard to improve fluency as we asked every child to read for at least 5-10 minutes each day, over the past school year.. We are asking you to help your child maintain this habit over the summer even if it is just for 5 minutes each day. The iTalam portal will continue to be open through the end of July. If you need any support with iTalam, please contact Morah Vardit at vardit@akivanashville.net. If you are interested in any other Hebrew books to borrow for the summer, please let us know.